Allianz roars into The Year of the Tiger

Chinese New Year is a time to celebrate happiness, prosperity and wealth. To usher in the New Year, Allianz invited the Xuan Wu Dragon & Lion Athletic Association to its office in Centennial Tower to kick off the festivities with a bang.

After an exciting display in the lobby, the lion troupe walked around the Allianz office, thrilling staff with their dance and by bringing luck & prosperity to all – including giving out some lucky 4D numbers using orange segments.

Senior management embraced the festivities. Karl-Heinz Jung, CEO, was very happy to participate, catching oranges thrown by the lion and taking the CNY 'Good Luck' Scroll from the lion's mouth. He later said, "This is a special time in the Singapore calendar. At this time, we appreciate our customers, our partners and our staff & their families for all their hard work and support. We want to share our luck with them".

As well as the lion dance, each department celebrated in their own unique way by decorating their cubicles with symbols of happiness, luck and abundance - prizes were given out for the teams with the best displays.

"In the 30 years, I have worked for Allianz, this is the first time we have done this. It was great." said one long-term staff member.

Later, all of the Allianz companies in Centennial Tower and Millenia Tower participated in a 300-strong Lo Hei. A buffet was provided for staff to eat their fill, and welcomed the New Year together.

We at Allianz wish our customers and partners a happy and prosperous Year of the Tiger. Gong Xi Fa Chai.
