

ALLIANZ MOTOR PROTECT

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ)

A. PRODUCT

Q1: Can I Purchase Allianz Motor Protect If I Am Not Singaporean?

Yes you can, as long as your car is legally registered in Singapore under the Singapore Road Traffic Act.

Q2: Can No Claim Discount (NCD) Be Transferrable?

NCD is not transferrable to another person except to your spouse, provided that your spouse is purchasing a new Allianz Motor Protect plan with Allianz. This is a one-time transfer and it is nonreversible. After the transfer, your NCD for your existing motor insurance policy will become 0%.

Q3: What Is The Procedure For Transferring NCD From Allianz To Other Insurers And Vice Versa?

Your decision to transfer NCD happens at point of sale when you switch insurers. For example, your car is now insured with Insurer A with 40% NCD, you can call Allianz to enquire about Allianz Motor Protect plan and provide the relevant details before purchasing.

Q4: What Is The Benefit Of Adding Named Drivers To My Motor Insurance Policy?

By having named drivers in your motor insurance policy, your named drivers will enjoy the same lower excess as you. Excess is the amount you as the policyholder are required to contribute before you can make a claim.
